Greater China M&A slowed down in H1 2018 but remained robust all the same

Mergers and acquisitions (M&A) targeting companies based in Greater China, comprising China, Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan, remained robust in H1 2018 at 7,839 deals totalling USD 428,729 million, and while M&A was down from H2 2017, value was actually the fourth-largest and volume the fifth highest on record.

While regulatory, political and financial concerns – for example Beijing cracking down on irregular practices and illegal activities in the country's financial sector to forestall and curb risks and a potential trade war with the US - weighed on M&A, they did not totally suppress individual valuations as two deals topped USD 10,000 million. Agricultural Bank of China raised USD 14,999 million and Ant Financial, the payments platform controlled by Jack Ma, completed a USD 14,000 million funding round.
