Top Deal by Value

Brookfield to acquire Forest City Realty

Target: Forest City Realty Trust Inc
Value: USD 11,400 million
Announced date: 30th July 2018
Target region: US
Target business: Residential apartment leasing services provider; non-residential office and retail space leasing services provider

Private equity firm Brookfield Asset Management has reached an agreement to acquire Forest City Realty Trust in an all-cash transaction through its own real estate investment fund for USD 11,400 million, including debt. The price represents a premium of under 10 per cent from Forest City Realty's close on 27th July 2018, the last trading day prior to the announcement. Financing for the deal is to be provided by Bank of America, Barclays and Deutsche Bank, among others, with closing subject to regulatory and shareholder approvals and expected to complete in the fourth quarter of 2018.

Number Two Deal by Value

BASF completes acquisition of Liberty and LibertyLink from Bayer

Target: Bayer AG's Liberty herbicide business; Bayer AG's LibertyLink seeds business
Value: USD 6,896 million
Completed date: 1st August 2018
Target region: n/a
Target business: Herbicides manufacturer; crop seeds manufacturer

BASF has completed its previously announced acquisition of Bayer's Liberty herbicide business and its LibertyLink seeds assets for USD 6,896 million in cash. The original announcement was made in October 2017 and completion comes at the same time as BASF closing its acquisition of Bayer's seeds and pesticides assets. The deal was made to further enhance BASF's agricultural solutions division, which it bills as a core part of its portfolio.

M&A

Rumours and Opportunities

Qatar weighs purchase of Domodedovo airport: RBC

Target: Mezhdunarodnyi Aeroport Domodedovo OOO
Estimated value: USD 5,000 million
Rumour date: 1st August 2018
Target region: Russia
Target business: Airport operator

The Russian Direct Investment Fund are conducting a potential sale of the Domodedovo airport, with a number of investors such as Qatar Investment Authority, said to be interested, the unnamed investment banker working on the sale told RBC. A deal could be worth USD 5,000 million, the report suggested, with Dmitrii Kamenshchik expected to sell his shares as part of any takeover.

M&A

'Heineken to invest in CRH Beer'

Target: CRH (Beer) Ltd
Estimated value: USD 3,102 million
Rumour date: 3rd August 2018
Target region: British Virgin Islands
Target business: Brewery operator holding company

Heineken has submitted a non-binding agreement to pick up a 40 per cent stake in China Resource Holdings Beer (CRH Beer) for USD 3,102 million. Such a deal would create a long-term strategic partnership between the two with Heineken to gain a more advanced presence and market share of the beer industry in China, Hong Kong and Macau. In addition, China Resources Enterprise, the owner of CRH Beer, will acquire less than 1 per cent in Netherlands-based Heineken. The deals are subject to definitive agreements and regulatory approvals.
